

	Autumn	Spring	Summer
Year R	Please refer to the geography progression of skills to find out about how geographical knowledge, geographical understanding and geographical skills, enquiry and fieldwork are taught and woven through the topics in Year R.
Year 1	St Agnes What is our main street like? Fieldwork: Mapping our locality	Little Blue Planet: Investigating Spaceship Earth Our planet focus: Why are bees so important?	Hong Kong: A city in Asia by the Sea
Year 2	Exploring our United Kingdom Fieldwork: investigating the features of a settlement	Australia here we come: Exploring a distant place	Oceans How can we help our seas? Our Planet Focus: Plastic Pollution SAS Ocean Guardians Fieldwork: Trevaunance Cove beach study and plastics/litter survey
Year 3	Living in the Freezer: Investigating polar environments Our Planet Focus: Education for Antarctic conservation	Mountains, Volcanoes and Earthquakes Focused study of Naples-Living in the shadow of mountains Our Planet Focus: Humanitarian Aid ShelterBox	Beside the Sea: Investigating the UK's coastal environments Fieldwork: Trevaunance Cove study of coast features and human use
Year 4	Rivers How are rivers formed and what impact do they have on human activity? Field Work: Investigating the Gannel River	Biomes What is life like in the world's different biomes? Eden Project Trip	Amazon Adventures: Investigating the South American Rainforest Our Planet Focus: Rainforest Alliance
Year 5	A journey through the Americas: Investigating Longitude and Latitude	London: A city and a settlement Our Planet Focus: Refugee Action	The view from my window: Investigating different perspectives on our world Fieldwork week
Year 6	Sustainable Enterprise project Our Planet Focus: The circular economy	Africa: Diverse, dynamic and interconnected	Highlands vs Lowlands: A Comparative Study (Scottish Highlands & Amsterdam Region, Netherlands)

